'New Awakening' will support you with Divine Wisdom, Angelic Healing and Unconditional Love.

The 'New Awakening' process also provides three wisdom based companion personal and spiritual home study modules, with MP3 audio tutorials, to support the seven spiritual openings. These three course modules are 'Module 2 - The Excellent You', 'Module 3 - Love and Relationships' and 'Module 5 - The Gateway to Enlightenment'.

What is the purpose of the MP3 audio tutorials? When the MP3 audio tutorials are listened to repeatedly, they have a transformative effect upon the consciousness of the listener. ‘New Awakening Healing’ is a Spiritual Resource
Supporting you on your Spiritual Journey
This spiritual series is a Bridge to ‘Awakening into Oneness’

The most important thing for you to do as an individual if you wish to experience the Bliss of existence, if you wish to experience your soul’s journey’s objective of ascending to the crown chakra, is to create a solid comprehensive spiritual foundation that will support you in your daily life; a spiritual foundation which is broad and wide enough to provide you with all the spiritual tools you will need in your daily life that will transform the challenges and the obstacles you encounter along the way into a higher consciousness.

The source of creation has provided us with three Divine aspects that you will need to fully experience and understand if you are to awaken into the oneness of life. These three transforming aspects, that are included in the ‘New Awakening Spiritual Process’ are; the personal comforter of the Divine Healing Energy, the awakener of consciousness in the form of Divine Wisdom and the Bliss of Unconditional Love.

When you experience these three pure Divine aspects you will have everything you need to complete your spiritual journey, arriving into mysticism, into becoming. In the six stages of learning, presented in six easy home-study modules with unlimited personal support, you will discover how to use all the tools we have provided for you but please remember hold on to none of them too tightly, for if you do they will become your bondage.

“The whole process of awakening can become extremely simple and very quick when your focus changes from the need to change yourself, your personality traits to changing your consciousness. You then move away from feeling bad or guilty about yourself into a beautiful acceptance of your life’s experiences, allowing the expression of yourself exactly as you are to become vibrantly alive; you will come to understand that you are perfect now exactly as you are.

The attitude to have if you wish to experience this beautiful truth is to accept yourself in your totality, to love yourself as you are. When you do this you then have an opportunity to re-connect with that which has created you, that which is inside of you right now. When you do this the struggle and striving is over and you will awaken to who you really are. You will become and you will discover that your personality self will not change but it is your consciousness that has changed. When this happens you will experience life in a totally new way; this will be your ‘New Awakening’ into being one with the Divine self of existence.

The overview about the 'New Awakening' Spiritual Process

Enlightenment throughout the ages is always the same, when a human-being awakens to the inner realm of the mystic law of creation. These great personal experiences have been translated into many religious, spiritual and mystical practices that have been taught over many centuries to help society. We have tremendous respect and appreciation for all past different teaching methods because they have brought us spiritually to where we are today.

This is a very exciting time as there is the emergence of a new energy consciousness occurring throughout the world. What is happening is that many of these teachings are now transforming into a direct spiritual experience. There are many individuals who are now awakening to an inner Divine wisdom resulting in a tremendous love and compassion for themselves, humanity and the natural environment. You could say that the seeds of the old spiritual teachings are now transforming, they are now starting to flower within society.

We understand this as a shift in consciousness that is starting to take place on the earth today; the start of a new golden, human-spiritual era for all of mankind to experience. There have been many prophesies which support that this change in consciousness will be happening at this time. The main shift that is taking place in society today is the change in the way that enlightenment is now being experienced.

Throughout mankind's history we have had the experience of isolated individuals achieving enlightenment, teaching disciples who in turn have left teachings and spiritual practices for us to follow. These teachings and practices have been left to help us understand our relationship with the creative source of existence. What we are seeing happen today is quite the opposite whereby personal enlightenment is now being experienced by many individuals. This phenomenon is now slowly spreading throughout the whole of society as each enlightened individual influences others to do the same.

Having had the privilege of this direct Divine experience, the founder of the 'New Awakening' process, Robert Bourne, being aware of this new phenomenon has been divinely guided to create a modern process of spiritual awakening that is appropriate for today's age. This new process enables the individual to have a direct experience of the laws of creation; eventually resulting in personal enlightenment. When you experience this new process of learning in its entirety a new spiritual awakening becomes possible.

The New Awakening process, created for modern day living, consists of a series of personal and spiritual development Awakening Teachings plus the four Reiki stages of learning. The Reiki stages of learning contain the traditional Reiki attunements which I am offering to everyone free of charge as my gift to mankind, learning concepts plus additional wisdom practices at each stage of development. NB: New Awakening Reiki has expanded upon the traditional Reiki training to include what the ancient masters used to teach to enable spiritual freedom and enlightenment from the restricted conditioned personality.

These additional teachings provide spiritual experiences that become personal foundations, building blocks for the individual's next stage of spiritual evolution. All the four stages of Reiki interlink into one complete 'New Awakening' personal enlightenment process for the student.

The 'New Awakening' process fundamentally differs from the traditional course as it offers the student a direct inner spiritual experience of the teaching that they are learning. As you study this spiritual guide you will receive a 'Spiritual Empowerment Awakening Transfer' from Robert, guided from Unconditional Love. This will awaken a direct inner experience and realization of the teaching for you.

The Unconditional Love energy transfers that are contained within these teachings will attune your chakra system to bring about your spiritual realization of the teaching you are learning; a new awakening with a change in consciousness occurs as a result. This is part of the personal support you will receive from Robert with each module you study.

These 'New Awakening' modules will create a successful individual with a compassionate heart. You will have the ability to create your own reality, free from the conditioning and limitations of the self. They will awaken you to your own healing; to your own inner state of Unconditional Love and most importantly to your inner teacher providing you with Divine Wisdom in each moment of your existence. You will learn the workings of human spiritual life within all aspects of your relationships and your personal experience of daily life.

The 'New Awakening Spiritual Process' consists of Six Stages of Development in the form of Six Modules with Seven Spiritual Openings

The 'New Awakening' system has been designed and created from Divine spiritual guidance. The New Awakening process understands that if the student has not opened themselves spiritually at the foundation awakening energy stages of their development, they will be unable to progress to the next awakening stage.

This is true even if they have previously undertaken the assumed required training. The truth is that you are one with the Divine, although you may be blocked off from this direct connection with the illusionary beliefs you hold within your soul and mind body. This process gently guides you to unlock this beautiful birthright connection to enable your life to flourish into the amazing person you really are.

Through following the attunement initiation that I will give you free of charge, you will discover how to reconnect yourself to that which is hidden within you. Yes you do it to yourself; I am just your guide. Beware of anyone who tells you that this is not possible. The very idea is charged with illusion, power and control.

All the teachings and stages of development that make up this process have been proven by many students who have verified the tremendous depth of beauty and simplicity of the whole process. You are now in a privileged position to enjoy what others have taken many years to experience by having a direct sharing of the Master's secrets.

When a spiritual foundation and pathway has been established in the energy process and soul of the student the next doorway can then open; this awakening automatically happens with the 'New Awakening' training. All life experiences are then met at the soul level with healing transforming into love and balance.

I would like to explain why people get stuck on their spiritual journey. For example even though someone may have received the Reiki Masters Attunement or a Oneness attunement, if a foundation stage is by-passed, or the chakra energy process has not fully opened, the student will not be able to fully awaken to the next stage of development. This is controlled by the natural law of life. To illustrate this point the enlightenment of the Reiki Master's heart chakra will not fully open and be personally experienced if the three energy bodies have not been fully awakened at the Reiki Second Degree stage of spiritual awakening. Enlightenment just 'IS' - you are unable to buy it - you have to awaken to it.

The 'New Awakening Spiritual Process' has a compassionate methodical approach through providing proven energy experiences directly from Robert which build upon each other creating a solid safe foundation for you. This compassionate process created for the individual will enable the next spiritual opening to naturally occur safely. 'New Awakening' will support you with Divine Wisdom, Angelic Healing and Unconditional Love.

The MP3 audio tutorials are very important as they have a transformative effect upon the consciousness of the listener. When you listen to Robert's voice on the audio tutorials it is connected to a certain consciousness and it is this which will activate your own wisdom transformation. When the MP3 audio tutorials are listened to repeatedly the 'Ah Ha' moments just keep coming over and over again. What could not be understood through reading alone becomes an enlightenment experience as the change in consciousness occurs at the soul level of awareness within you.

When you clear the blocks, transform your illusions within your mind you naturally awaken to your own Divinity. Great spiritual teachers who have spontaneously awakened to their true nature, like Eckhart Tolle, try to encourage us that this natural Divine state of being is really here 'in the now' and that we are just veiled or blocked off from it by the illusions within our own mind. The students who have studied all six 'New Awakening' modules have accelerated their spiritual development. Enlightenment 'IS' 'here and now', it is our illusions and misguided beliefs held in our karmic soul body that prevent us from having it all – right now! The six modules will provide you with a wisdom foundation at your soul level to prepare you to have this birthright experience of 'Enlightenment – awakening into the oneness of existence'.

To achieve the beautiful experience of personal enlightenment we have discovered that the following foundation spiritual gates, when opened within you in the following order, provide a gentle soul transition for this beautiful experience to occur:

First Spiritual Opening: (Module 1 – Reiki Healing First Degree) The attunement to Reiki Universal Life Healing Energy as experienced in Reiki First Degree This opens the heart chakra and the individual begins their spiritual journey; they are on the pathway to direct enlightenment. It is advisable to study the Reiki course manual and follow the exercises contained on the videos together with the MP3 audio tutorials. The home study of (Module 2 - Creating Abundance and Module 3 – Love and Relationships) are now introduced to you to assist your spiritual transformational experience. Together these first three modules provide a solid foundation in Healing, Love and Wisdom.

Second and Third Spiritual Openings: (Module 4 - Reiki Healing Second Degree) This is the attunement and awakening to the energy of the present, the power symbol for physical healing with its complementary emotional symbol of Love Sei-Hei-Ki. The second and third spiritual openings are experienced within part one of the Reiki Second Degree course together with the Reiki second degree spiritual attunements.

These two symbols form a Divine anchor in the physical body and emotional body. This allows the soul to soul connection to occur in a more powerful way through the crown chakra as described in stage three. The base chakra is grounded with the power symbol Cho-Ku-Rei as it brings Divinity into 'the present' the material expression of daily life. The heart chakra, the cross-roads of the lower and higher self, is directly connected to Unconditional Love through the emotional symbol; providing greater love and compassion to be experienced.

Fourth Spiritual Opening: (Module 4 - Reiki Healing Second Degree) - The attunement to the distant healing symbol Hon-Sha-Ze-Sho-Nen. This happens through the crown chakra directly through the Divine chakra. 'Namaste - The divinity in me meets the divinity in you'. This enables the Divine spiritual healing experience directly from soul to soul to occur. This explains the awareness of white light with the out of body experience reported by many of our students. This fourth spiritual opening is experienced within the Reiki Second Degree course module and through following the guidance contained on the MP3 audio tutorials.

Fifth and Sixth Spiritual Openings: (Module 5 – The Gateway to Enlightenment) It is at this stage that 'New Awakening' differs from most Reiki methods used in the West as it includes an additional attunement to Divine Wisdom. This awakens the higher-self, the inner Guru, within the third eye chakra of the student. This connection accesses the Divine Laws of creation enabling life choices to be made with Divine Wisdom, as opposed to personal intuition. This transforms illusion into enlightenment.

(Module 6 – Reiki Master and Teacher) - The attunement to Reiki Masters energy. When the spiritual openings one to four have been established the heart chakra of the student can now fully open, radiating Unconditional Love for all of mankind.

Seventh Spiritual Opening: This self attunement completes the journey of the soul by dissolving; having fully transformed the conditioned personal self. The heart chakra compassionately radiates the Reiki Master Energy of love and compassion. The higher self moves down from the crown to reside in the third eye; the inner Guru appears. Healing and Wisdom now combine being expressed as the Unconditional Love of the Source of creation.

This is the stage of mysticism, of becoming. Life becomes the experience of bliss, wisdom and oneness with all existence. The individual no longer exists moving beyond religious, race, national prejudice, written teachings or dogma. It is at this stage that the spiritual teacher is born – The 'I-AM' True Self Being emerges free from illusion.
