Abrahamic Unity

God/Allah Loves every Jew, Christian and Muslim equally

Abrahamic unity does not mean a sort of merging together of Christians, Muslims and Jews to create one new religion. I am mindful and respectful of all the different approaches to the one true God/Allah. In fact your religion is perfect for your life as it is. I hope you can now relax as you enjoy this book because I am not trying to tell you that you have got it wrong as this is not true because you have all got it right. In the eyes of God/Allah everything is perfect and has significant meaning.

Once you have read what God/Allah has given me to share with you a new understanding of your religion in relation to all others that believe in one God/Allah will exist. This will enable the arguments to stop about how to approach God/Allah or how to carry out your spiritual practice. This will be replaced with a new understanding and respect for the differences of all other religious approaches and practices. Respect, tolerance and appreciation will emerge bringing about peace and liberation to mankind.

Does the Bible or the Koran contain all that God/Allah has spoken or will more be revealed in the future? All of the prophets have brought new light and knowledge to the world. For example the new revelations by Jesus and his disciples have not invalidated what went before, nor have they closed the door on succeeding revelation, although today traditionalists still appear to reject any new teaching.

Looking at religious history you can see that mankind has evolved throughout various eras. New spiritual teachers have emerged to lead mankind to a closer understanding of their relationship with God/Allah/Source. At the time of the Old Testament any concept that God's/Allah's omni present 'Presence' is existing within all of physical life would have been viewed as blasphemy. Because of the fixation upon ancient scripture many western religions have rejected any new teaching about who and what we really are. The individual, no matter what faith they belong to, has the choice to consider what is being shared and therefore evolution has the opportunity to flower with the new knowledge I am sharing with you.

The experience I have been given is a revelation from a source of Unconditional Love that is beyond my human mind, it comes from a higher oneness pure light non-form consciousness. The knowledge in this revelation opens the inner door to a heavenly paradise bringing a new understanding and respect to all three faiths. This will simplify your life and practice bringing the much needed peace on Earth.

There have been many books written by individuals who have reported conversations with God/Allah or clairvoyants who have received information channelled from other worldly spiritual beings' communication. In most of these cases there is a sort of question and answer process between the separate person and the Angel or the spiritual knower that visited them from the astral non physical realm. This tends to result in guidance about specific things to help our life on this planet, life after death, etc. All of these books are fascinating and are helpful in leading us to take faith in some concept of a God/Allah and afterlife. Hopefully your faith has already taught you these two Truths.

What I am sharing celebrates what your faith has taught you and how you are practicing your religion in your life. You are reading this to gain the last piece of the jigsaw puzzle to add to your existing faith. This means where you are now is perfect because you are ready to have a direct experience of God/Allah. Ask your Priest, Rabbi or Iman if they mind you becoming alive with the presence of oneness love; having your life lifted by grace from the limitations and illusions of the personality, experiencing a life of inner peace and contentment, living a life unfolding before you without having to try and figure it out. Of course they will not object and will try and give you a rational reason based upon their faiths teachings. But secretly they will be wondering how this has happened to you as it a state reserved for Angels, saints and sages.

When you have this experience you will be bursting with joy wanting to share it with everyone, however keep quiet until it has taken a deep hold on your life. Doing this prevents your mind being disturbed by well meaning priests or others of your faith trying to talk you out of it.

The knowledge in my message is very different as it reveals the truth about who we really are. It is the right time in mankind's evolution for these truths to be revealed to everyone on the planet. It is often said by many religions that 'The Truth' will set you free. The untaught knowledge within this message will be the final teaching not contained in your sacred texts, the Bible or the Koran. This knowledge has been revealed to you for this very purpose, to help set mankind free from the limitation and illusion about what the human race for thousands of years has collectively mistakenly believed that we are.

We are Creating our Life from our Thoughts and Beliefs

Most people don't understand the power they have in their life. The pure light of God/Allah is used by the mind to create our daily life until awakening happens. Because we are God/Allah in God's/Allah's image most people don't realise that we are creating what our mind thoughts and beliefs project into creation, the material world. These thoughts are then reflected back to us through the earth bound law of cause and effect. In other words the individual is creating their life without understanding how the process of creation on earth works. Your current beliefs are what is limiting you from your spiritual evolution and causing all the conflict in the world. The reason for this is so the soul ego of the person can learn through direct experience what is creating suffering and what is creating peace and joy. This is God's/Allah's spiritual law for us to evolve towards unconditional love on planet earth. You only have to adjust your understanding to open the heavenly door to a new paradise, one you have never experienced before in your life!

It is not until a oneness of the human-being and the Pure-unchanging-Divine-Core-Being (named God or Allah by the many different abrahamic faiths) is established that illusion is removed. As mentioned it is our mind beliefs that create our earthly life experience from all the various levels of different consciousness (known as lower consciousness as it is limited and therefore veils the complete picture). It is Divine Love that transforms our mind's illusion into God's/Allah's consciousness of Truth. When the Presence of Love is experienced the ego is dropped and life just unfolds in a beautiful natural way. This means the daily life struggle is over, God/Allah is now looking after your life without your interference.

The Key to Transformation

The key to transformation therefore lies in connecting with God's/Allah's Love Presence and surrendering to what we think we know. Our beliefs and knowledge are limited and in most peoples lives their mind is creating disharmony; therefore bringing about unsatisfied desire resulting in their unhappiness.

You could ask, "Why are there so many different religions in the world; the cause of so many conflicts about correctness of ideology?" This is very simple to explain. It depends upon the differences of culture and the collective consciousness of a group, or a nation of people as to how God/Allah manifests leading spiritual teachings.

This book contains the Truth, the additional knowledge about what we really are and how your faith has been perfect to prepare you for this experience.

A Message for Christians Muslims and Jews

A few years ago I was guided to gain an overview understanding of the foundation teachings of the main religions in the West and why there is so much conflict between the various ways of embracing God/Allah. This prepared me for a direct experience with God/Allah leaving a message of Truth to all who believe in the Oneness and Love of God/Allah. This is what I am sharing with you now. When you read this please do not make any judgement or compare it with your current teaching until the end, just keep an open mind and heart.

It is very, very difficult for me to share the message with you because the emotion I experienced was so overwhelming that I even kept quiet about it for sometime. However after the direct God/Allah experience a golden presence kept waking me in the night transmitting the message that I had to share my experience with the world. During the experience I was completely filled with God's/Allah's Love and Grace. I could only have this experience as many years ago I have had an awakening to unconditional love and pure light knowingness. You can read this in the final chapter about the author.

The experience that happened to me can be compared to someone very slowly drowning in quicksand until their whole being was absorbed. Being in another dimension I could still see and feel from this state of pure awareness being. God/Allah then rose up into my heart and I was filled with an overwhelming Oneness Love. A knowingness was in my mind without thinking. As I looked out into the world I saw Gods/Allahs response to mankind's evolution. My heart overflowing with love and great joy could not hold back the tears which gently rolled down my cheeks as I felt the Love God/Allah has for all Christians, Muslims and Jews. In that moment I was one with that Divine Presence. Just for now as you read this please suspend all your learnt mind beliefs as they could be blocking you from experiencing the love of God/Allah. Just open your heart to receive the Truth. I will never forget this beautiful experience that I have been guided to share with you.

A background of Mankind's Spiritual Evolution

The karma of different races and communities have brought about the various foundation teachings by the manifestation of key individuals, Abraham, Muhammad and Jesus Christ. The Divine has created different forms of worship as a preparation for full enlightenment; they are all true parts of the one Truth. There is no special race or practice as God/Allah exists at the core of every living being equally, you could say that mankind in its totality is the special race. According to the various unique cultures different leading teachings have emerged to prepare mankind for a collective awakening. This phenomena also happened in Buddhism and Hinduism but with different Spiritual Masters and Gurus. For example Paramahansa Yogananda came from India to America and taught self-realisation. He taught that the teachings of Christ and the Vedic Scriptures shared the same core Truth.

The time will come when the various religious and spiritual practices will be understood as different spiritual pathways leading to the same one Truth. All three faiths practiced in the West are required to bring about full enlightenment for the human race. The three key aspects are the light of Truth (Judaism) and Love for all of life (Christianity) that can only be experienced through personal surrender of one's limited egoic mind identity (Islam). I expect you can identify the different Religious approaches in these three aspects? Collectively they have all been effecting mankind globally for the preparation of world peace. Each faiths different aspect have also been a preparation for the individuals souls maturity. This is what makes your existing faith the perfect contribution to raising mankind's consciousness. Therefore an acceptance and respect of all Religious differences is initially required before individual awakening can occur.

The Truth will set you free! The prophet Abraham was one with God/Allah and was the first in the West to share this with mankind when he said, 'I AM'. It has taken so many years to put in place the preparation for mankind to be able to realise this Truth as a direct experience. The pure light consciousness of God/Allah is within all of life. This is the relationship change of identity with God/Allah that is initially required, then the individual soul has the opportunity to transform into eternal Unconditional Love by having a direct experience of God/Allah in this lifetime. This is your life's purpose, to experience who you really are. You have kept your traditions long enough for them to mature into their true purpose. That purpose was to prepare your culture for individual and collective awakening.

Muslims are taught to surrender to Allah (God) which is fantastic. Jesus also stated 'I AM' one with God/Allah and taught you to love everyone without judgement and that God/Allah exists within the heart of every person. This is the Truth because we live in an eternal ocean of Love, that is the Source I was awakened to. Love is the bridge between your personal life and God/Allah. In fact God/Allah exists everywhere and can easily be experienced by a person as a 'Presence'.

As you sow so shall you reap

The teaching of 'As you sow so shall you reap' is the law of cause and effect which is understood within all faiths, as I mentioned earlier. Meaning what you experience is a result of the inner causes in your life attracting the effects to you through others. This earth bound law has now been proven by quantum physics, known as quantum entanglement. Knowing this law makes it impossible to blame anything outside of you as the cause of unpleasant experiences that come into your life. Therefore it is logical when knowing this law that if you want something to change in your life you have to change the inner cause inside yourself. A persons mind and soul is vibrating at a certain frequency of conscious awareness. It is obvious that the same limited awareness that created the problem is unable to solve it. The problem requires a higher more expanded vibrational frequency to bring about transformation. This is the function of God's/Allah's Love that surrounds our lives in the form of 'Divine Presence' and this is available to everyone. 'Presence' is a direct line to the pure light consciousness of God/Allah/Source.

The New Moral Code to Live Your Life by

To rapidly evolve I have been informed that there is now only one new life precept to follow and this one moral code is: 'Not to do anything to another without their permission'. This is the only social law required for mankind today. Think about this one code as it covers everything. This is the only teaching to live your life by as all other rules will hold you in bondage and cause you a lot of anxiety about living a good spiritual life. The abundance of rules most religions teach you are man made and have therefore been created from the mind of man that resides in illusion, being coloured by its own limitations of lower consciousness and cultural conditioning. They have been perfect to bring you to this point in your evolution however we are in the final stage of spiritual development and are ready for a direct awakening and merging with God/Allah/Source.

The precepts to live your life by outlined in the Bible or Koran therefore are no longer required when adopting this one new precept. The current set of rules and laws have been appropriate to prepare the soul for a direct experience of Awakening. I realise there will be much resistance in surrendering the past. However just try living by this one law for a month and discover the liberation and freedom your life will experience. Just thank your Religion for the set of rules you have been taught and are now living your life by. They have prepared you for the final direct experience of God/Allah. Once you do this put them aside to live by the one life precept of 'Not to do anything to another without their permission' you are letting go of the limitations they hold your life in. This traps you in your minds ego but now you want your mind be replaced by the loving 'Presence of God/Allah' and it is only this that can transform your soul to bring about the 'I AM' experience.

Good and Bad Priests, Imams and Rabbis

The interpretation within all religions of their enlightened source tends to lose its mystical awareness, as a more literal sharing according to the disciples mind's understanding of the Master's Divine oneness love presence becomes a teaching. This then becomes a religious text that is also open to editing by corrupt individuals only interested in control, power and wealth.

The enlightened truth in these texts is often missed because the ordinary lower mind is unable to understand it. By nature a person is at a certain soul stage of evolution; their mind and soul is in a lower state of vibrational awareness consciousness than that of the awakened enlightened Master, it is as if they cannot see the Master's pure light truth because they are filtering and limiting life's experience through wearing the coloured glasses of lower consciousness.

Having said this there are many believers of different faiths and religions who gain great Divine connection and receive miracles in their lives. The reason for this is in their absolute FAITH in God/Allah or their Divine. It is this innocence and humility which causes the mind to fall away to allow the energy of the Divine to manifest. How true it is when it is said that the humble or innocent will inherit the kingdom of God/Allah.

Today there are good and bad priests, imams and rabbis therefore examine carefully what your priest, imam or rabbi is telling you about what to believe, about how to behave and what you are. The only uniformity required for mankind are the qualities of God/Allah as every human being is unique. Each life requires to be able to express its uniqueness as an expression of God/Allah. A priest, imam or rabbi who is not 'I AM' is not worthy to lead others as they are just coming from historical dogma and mind interpretation of the scriptures, their soul will be residing in lower consciousness. If their preaching is not in accordance with the teachings of Love, Truth and Surrender and you believe their distorted preaching then your heart will be full of hatred towards others or yourself and your soul will transform into the darkness of gross consciousness resulting in personal suffering. This person dressed in a robe then is no more than a parasite, one who resides in darkness using the light of God/Allah/Source just to lord over the humbleness of those who are seeking the Truth. Regard these priests, imams or rabbis just like a cuckoo or a leech as they are a person who clings to another for control, power and personal gain. You should just walk away as they are feeding upon your pure open heart.

If your priest, imam or rabbi is awakened and teaching you God's/Allah's pure truths then your heart and mind will be full of God's/Allah's love and your soul will evolve, giving you the opportunity to experience yourself as 'I AM' in this lifetime. You only have to believe God/Allah is waiting to manifest through you in Love and Truth. You need to change your identity of who and what you really are.

The Final Step to Your Practice

Your own body is the new temple designed specifically for you to experience your own True-God/Allah-Self. Look within, not without and you will experience everlasting love and discover a heavenly paradise right now here on earth!

This final step to your practice means there is nowhere to go, no temple, no church, no teacher to visit because you have everything inside of you to directly wake up to this Truth.

The final teaching of connecting to those who are already awakened and one with God/Allah such as Jesus, Yogananda etc is now directly available to you. The God/Allah Awakened Ascendant Masters will lift you up from the inside with God's/Allah's eternal inexhaustible Unconditional Love. This is the untaught knowledge required for your awakening.

The Missing Knowledge

Within your different faiths you have asked God/Allah to bring you the solution to peace which is why I have shared my experience with you. In some mystical way I have been selected to bring you this message. This knowledge will solve the historically entrenched religious conflict between the different faiths. First of all each of the three faiths only have one part of the Truth so it is pointless fighting with another about any differences as if you hold the key to God/Allah. Most of the differences are about how to live your life by the spiritual daily life practices that you treasure. It is these very precious practices that have now conditioned your life. To ask you to change these and embrace other practices would not be wise and is not required. The solution is simple as what you are now doing is perfect, you just need to add the missing knowledge that I am sharing with you and everything in your life and practice will become illuminated with God/Allah as a direct experience.

For your evolution the precepts you keep can be updated with the one new moral code, as explained above. Doing this puts you all on an equal footing. Living by this one moral code, that of 'Not doing anything to another without their permission' will put us all in total agreement with each other no matter what faith you hold and this will become your new spiritual practice. The focus has to be on God/Allah as a direct experience existing inside of you and not based upon the different explanations about what God/Allah is and how you are meant to become some sort of spiritual cloned human being. Arguments about ideology come from the lower consciousness of a person's mind/ego and in this mind you need to transcend. This is why dropping your mind/ego is essential to enable awakening to occur.

The three practices of Surrender, Love and Truth are collectively the Oneness Truth of life's Source that you have named God, Allah or another. Awakening to these aspects will happen automatically not by practicing the other religions but through adding the new knowledge in this book to your existing practice. You will then enter the realm of eternal peace and love from the inner golden light of pure awareness right now here on earth! When you awaken to your True-Higher-Self you will see we are all connected and one with God/Allah, it then becomes impossible to harm another. This is my own personal experience.

In fact to point out the differences or feel superior shows you do not understand and have not fully experienced the Source of your creation. The fight therefore is with your inner-self, your limited illusionary beliefs, not those outside of you with a different view. THIS IS THE PROBLEM and easy to solve by surrendering to God's/Allah's Presence of Love. I am not pointing out faults in you or your religion as they are historically perfect, in fact I celebrate the past as they have created the foundation for your awakening. It is now time to build the house of God's/Allah's Love and Pure Light awareness upon the foundation of what currently exists in your life.

About the Second Coming

The message I have been given for those in the West is that the second coming many in the Western religions are waiting for is already here! The personal mind of the human-being thinks in terms of separation, i.e., me and the other etc, however in Truth all is already in Oneness on the inside. Once enlightened to this Oneness then all is seen and understood as God/Allah manifesting as different unique forms.

Therefore it is only natural when we look at our Religious historical roots to see there was always an enlightened human-being who was enlightened to God/Allah whose mission it has been to help mankind with their spiritual relationship according to their unique culture.

Gods/Allahs New Temple

The foundation teaching that was taught is that there is only one God/Allah. Abraham and Muhammad spread this truth throughout the Middle East and remonstrated, even by using force, to stop the worship of many different idols, etc.

Once this Truth was in place Jesus Christ then manifested bringing the spiritual pathway of Unconditional Love to enable a direct experience of God/Allah within mankind's temple. This is not a building, it is the seven centres of the rainbow body with its six senses of every person alive. When the six senses of the human-being are turned inwards they reflect the beauty of God/Allah; they become a mirror for God/Allah to experience itself which is why I say the body is the temple of God/Allah. Once this is experienced the seven seals mentioned in the Bible are unlocked and God's/Allah's Presence of Love is enjoyed every day in this Garden of Eden called planet Earth. Everything then will transform in your life. This has been my own direct experience.

The preparation for awakening of the various different forms of devotional practice and surrender to God/Allah has over the years created a maturity within mankind's souls to occur. This maturity enables the individual to awaken to the Oneness of God/Allah and the individual human-being to become one when the time is right, and that time is right now here on earth! The second coming therefore is waiting for you to awaken, it will not be in the form of another human-being, as your conditioned mind believes, but it will be found within the soul body of every Jew, Muslim, Christian and of all other denominations thereof. The 'Truth' will always set you free and this is the new message that I joyfully bring to you.

I have had this direct experience and can assure you that God/Allah loves every Jew, Christian and Muslim equally. In fact, as previously mentioned, the three different pathways of faith together with this new knowledge are the direct route to the experience of Oneness with God/Allah. This understanding will simplify your life and when practiced will bring peace on Earth. You will then live your daily life in heavenly paradise. This is my promise to you. Change your identity to believe that you are one with God/Allah on the inside and then everything is possible. The messiah you have been waiting for is already within your own spiritual heart. If you take belief in Jesus Christ he is waiting on the inside to free you from your bondage right now. This really is the fastest route you can take. I know of many Muslims that have been awakened immediately this way. They were shocked that God/Allah is within the earthly body and it was the light of Love that freed them from their suffering.

When you change your belief to this understanding your very own practice that has prepared you will be the cause for your awakening to the God/Allah inside your heart. The inner light of God/Allah within your very own soul body is waiting to awaken you to your Ascension.

Ascension in its basic spiritual or mystical sense can be thought of as the highest state of a human-being. It is the expansion of awareness. It involves the realisation of being ONE with the Creator and all of creation.

Revelations regarding Jesus and Christ Consciousness

The following is taken from the Bible by the Jehovah Witnesses

When visiting the Jehovah Witnesses website searching for their Bible explanations about Jesus a golden presence came down upon me.

Jesus 'tasted death for everyone' who exercises faith in him. Hebrews 2:9; John 3: 16 Thereafter, "God raised him up from the dead," and Jesus returned to heaven as a spirit creature. Acts 3: 15 There, Jesus is able "to save completely those who are approaching God through him, because he is always alive to plead for them." Hebrews 7: 25

The Truth is in these extracts however the translation used is easily misunderstood by today's reader because it is presented in an ancient language format. I hope to clarify what is being said.

The key to understanding the life's mission of Jesus is in the concept that his spiritual soul's existence is holographic in nature. Jesus was and is in oneness with the pure light of God/Allah existing in the realm of Ascendant Masters. When the mission of Abraham and Muhammad had been fulfilled by teaching society that there is only one God/Allah then the soul of Jesus could manifest within a human body bringing the teachings of God/Allah to mankind in a new form. It is all part of the evolution of mankind's awakening on an individual level. The debated question of Jesus coming back from the dead becomes clear once you realise that a soul in the realm of Ascendant Master can manifest within physical life at will. At the time of Jesus it provided proof to those who saw him for themselves leaving their personal reports of their sightings of his resurrection. The teaching is that his soul is immortal and in oneness with God/Allah.

Jesus now exists holographically as is omni present for all of those who wish to believe and call upon him to help with their evolution and awakening. Because of the oneness of God/Allah in the form of Love and the pure light of awareness within all of life, it means he can visit millions of people at the same time on the inside of their life. When a prepared believer experiences this visitation the light of God/Allah will transform itself into an image that is believed in by the person's soul mind's awareness. This could be (Jesus or another). This allows the individual to accept the experience allowing an automatic surrender to occur to the Unconditional Love Presence they receive. Then their soul is elevated to the heavenly realm of golden light. When someone has this direct experience others will see a change in them, such as they are being more positive, having a radiant glow with a strong knowingness of Jesus and God's/Allah's Presence of Love. These visible changes then become actual proof that a transformation has occurred.

There are many Christians who testify to being lifted from suffering and speak about being born again. I even know Muslims from Iran who have faithfully preached the Koran, following all the austerities of their practice only to come to a final prayer on their knees asking to know God/Allah. They have prepared themselves but have not had the direct experience of God/Allah. They then have been visited on the inside by Jesus who embraced them in a love they have never previously experienced. They then have asked for forgiveness and it was granted leaving them with an experience of feeling that a weight had been lifted from them. This is the raising of consciousness of their soul to a heavenly realm instantly dissolving their illusions about God/Allah and experiencing how to live life in a new way. They were released from that which had bound them into suffering. This shows every practice is perfect, even if partial in nature. What really counts is the sincerity and passion of the practitioner. When the time is right and the person surrenders their mind asking "Why am I suffering?" a gap appears allowing for God/Allah to manifest within them. When you understand this process you can see God/Allah has been there all the time, loving you all the time, but it has been your beliefs and minds ego that has been blocking you from allowing God/Allah to enter your being. Remember your body is God's/Allah's temple. This is why to surrender in humility dropping your limited mind's knowledge and ego is the solution. Remember you are not a bad person in fact you are perfect in the eyes of God/Allah.

Conclusion

The Bible and the Koran provided a foundation teaching based upon the same Truth that there is only one God/Allah. All denominations agree with this belief. Jesus came with the spiritual teachings to liberate mankind from their illusions. He proved the power of the one God/Allah through the miracles he performed showing the love and grace God/Allah has for all mankind. His death was not a death but a device to embed his soul into the whole of mankind for their salvation. His main teaching by his life's example was that God/Allah exists within a human-being!

What can we take from this? I am your messenger to share that God/Allah loves all Muslims, Christians and Jews equally. Right now Jesus in the form of Divine Light is on the inside of your soul waiting for you to awaken the God/Allah consciousness within your own life. You will then go to the heavenly paradise exactly as you are. You do not need to become a Christian to have this experience. Of course after the experience you will start your transformation in respect and appreciation for every living being equally without any judgement of others. You will be guided by the presence of love what to do and how to live.

Does this mean that everyone will ascend to a heavenly realm upon death? No, as it depends upon the surrender of the personal human mind in its limited illusionary concept of life, plus the belief in the Divine Light of God/Allah. Believing in this will activate the consciousness of God/Allah within the soul. By putting your attention on God/Allah not outside of you but inside of you will open the inner pathway to God's/Allah's Unconditional Presence of Love. This will pour down upon you according to your souls evolution, transforming your life into Unconditional Love. This is the fast track to awakening.

One other good point regarding this additional knowledge you do not have to change faith because yours is perfect for you. What has happened is that you have laid a foundation by living out your spiritual practices, then you awaken to a direct relationship with your inner God/Allah. This transformation can be likened to a ship (the spiritual practice) to cross the sea of suffering (human-mind life constructed existence). Once awakened you can get off the ship and enjoy your heavenly paradise.

The realm of the Ascendant Masters is where my soul resides within the infinite ocean of Unconditional Love. At this golden realm the soul is completely free from suffering, in bliss, peace, contentment and Divine knowingness. It is from this place I can confirm what is being shared here is the Truth.

Change the Fear of God/Allah to the Love of God/Allah

Most Abrahamic religions use the concept of living in fear of God/Allah. They view the person as an unworthy sinful creature that needs to be whipped into shape to reform who they are. This approach was appropriate for the middle ages but for today's society it is inappropriate, as we have evolved. The old concept of being an unworthy sinful person was used to prevent the soul residing in a negative gross astral realm after the death of the body. Because of this approach the guilt and conflict a person may carry about who and what they are creates a block in their relationship with God/Allah. When you send love to God/Allah you will receive help from a higher realm of consciousness to raise you up from the lower realm of gross existence. When you experience this love then any gross tendency in your life will be able to be seen before it is acted upon because your soul awareness will be in a higher state of consciousness.

There we are, all has been perfect so now you know the Truth it is up to you to put it into practice. You can do this without changing the religious path that you are currently in.

My message through my experience is to send everyone in every Abrahamic faith God's/Allah's Love.

Know you are loved by God/Allah.

This is my message.

What is the difference between God/Allah-Consciousness and Awakening?

It is the complete merging of the mind in God/Allah-Consciousness, in which no trace of 'I' is left.

The Awakening attained through the path of loving devotion is different.

In this awakening, there remains a consciousness of 'I' - the 'I' of the servant-and-Master relationship, of the lover-and-Beloved relationship, of the enjoyer-and-Food relationship.

God/Allah is the Master; the devotee is the servant. God/Allah is the Beloved; the devotee is the lover. God/Allah is the Food, and the devotee is the enjoyer.

It is enough that one surrenders oneself. Surrender your mind/ego and love God/Allah with all your heart.

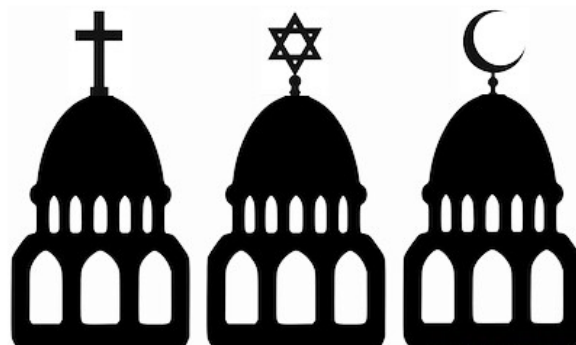

The key to your awakening is to embrace the following beliefs

1. God/Allah is Love, not Fear
2. You have to love yourself as well as loving God/Allah
3. The pathway to God/Allah exists inside of you, within your own body

Your New Spiritual Practice ~ Living by one Moral Code

Do not do anything to another without their permission

YOU HAVE BEEN PREPARED - YOU ARE NOW READY FOR ONENESS WITH GOD/ALLAH

Note:

If your practice is Islamic then you are very prepared for awakening therefore belief in Jesus may not be easily embraced and this is acceptable.

I have added 'The Masters Path' teaching revealed by the light of the Ascendant Masters. The teachings do not relate to any existing religion as it was revealed from the Source of where all religions come from.

Please read the book description on the final page of my sharing. You may find this helpful.

The Masters Path

by Robert Bourne

ISBN: 9798325549403

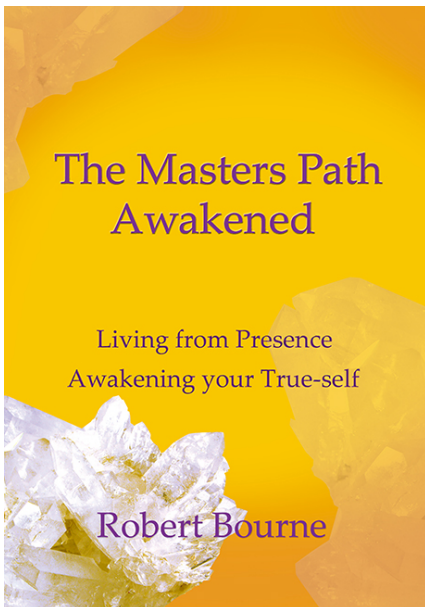

This book contains the shortcut to your True-God/Allah-Self

In the book Robert shares his enlightened experience to the realm of Ascendant Masters where it was revealed that he was a Guru in a past life. He was shown the workings of life within an infinite source of Unconditional Love. In this incarnation he has taken a back seat role by creating a modern spiritual foundation to help people prepare their soul to be able to contain the direct power of the full awakening experience.

After direct contact with the Golden Light he was guided to share the ultimate untaught Master's teaching for mankind's awakening. This is more than just a book as it is a transformational device that will bring Contentment, Love, Bliss and Pure Awareness to those who have awakened beyond the conditioned personality. It is the golden key that unlocks the hidden treasure behind the veil of illusion. It will guide those who have already spontaneously awakened to make the final connection with their inner True-God/Allah-Self.

All denominations will find this book helpful as it brings clarity in a direct way supporting their teaching of God/Allah as it comes from the Source of where all teachings spring from.

About the Author

Robert Bourne

Robert Bourne is a Spiritual Teacher, Sports Psychologist, Musician and Author. He began his career in sports psychology, hypnosis and NLP gaining an honours degree for his thesis on Auto-suggestion in 1986.

I have provided a brief background about my life experiences which culminated in me having the awakening experience. The full biography about my life's experiences can be read in 'The Awakening Process' available as a Free download from my website at www.new-awakening.com

For many years before my awakening I used to pray to be able to create the maximum value with my life for the benefit of others. When I experienced the unconditional love awakening I knew the only purpose of my life was to share this Divine nectar with others; to help them also awaken to their True-God/Allah-Self. This inner awakening experience brings peace and contentment, freedom from suffering created by the limitations and illusions of the personal mind constructed illusionary life.

Ever since this new knowledge of Truth was downloaded into my mind I have been aware that a sort of completion has happened to my life in terms that this has been the purpose of my incarnation.

Awakening Experience

My own sharing of awakening is unique to me in order to carry out my life purpose, therefore do not expect awakening to be the same experience for you, as you are also unique.

Sending Devotional love to God/Allah caused my Awakening

In the early nineties I was confronted with a schism in my Buddhist organisation NSUK. I was asked to continue my practice with the lay society or with the priesthood structure. I declined them both as I loved them both equally. This gave me the perfect opportunity to search deeper within myself for this idea of enlightenment. I surrendered my life and everything I thought I knew by letting go of any idea or concept of life's workings, allowing my mind to become open to the new. If the Buddha said The Lotus Sutra is the cause for all enlightenment then up to that point in my life I had not experienced it.

My objective was to have a direct experience of what Buddha and Christ had experienced

I became a recluse giving up my Buddhist practice and took down my Gohonzon, the mandala I used within my Buddhist practice. To establish the authenticity of 'The Lotus Sutra' I obtained two copies of the book sourced from opposing sects. I then chanted over each chapter of the sutra until I had a direct realisation of what they were sharing.

I then passionately embraced everything as God/Allah with as much personal love emotionally I had to give to this hidden God/Allah Being.

My Awakening Experience

1. Sitting beneath a Niagara falls of love I was filled slowly from the base upwards with love until my rainbow body was overflowing within each chakra energy centre. It stopped at my third eye where I met my inner divinity.
2. As I was being raised up in this ocean of love going past the questioning personal mind into a state of peace and contentment, the questioner had been left far behind.
3. This place of ascendent masters was where I was told I would come to after leaving my body. There were some Masters at this place in service to mankind and some had moved into other dimensions in a state our earthly mind knows as God/Allah. Life continues in a non-physical form once union with the state of God/Allah consciousness occurs. You could say that becoming one with God/Allah is the entry point to this new existence.
4. I then saw within my mind the whole of mankind in it, as it is holographic in nature. There is only one mind which contains every unique living being on the planet. This mind acts just like a telephone exchange, when someone puts their attention on you it rings your own inner mind exchange number; this explains telepathy.
5. Being outside of the dualistic realm of lower consciousness I saw the biological world in the shape of a globe that was made up of all our bodies on earth and that my body and life, although unique, was just like a very small grain of sand within this one earthly body. This explains how one being in higher consciousness effects the whole of mankind.

6. At this place of perfect stillness all desires had dissolved. There was only one desire left within my life which was to share this love presence with the world. My only role was to help the world in the Awakening Process. I felt like a fountain of love which was eternal in nature. Come and drink from this fountain until you are drunk with its sweetness, healing and transformation of your life; become whole again.
7. After the experience had finished I then became a resource for mankind. I could open and close the portal of love presence purity, like opening the blinds on the window to allow the sunlight to shine through. When I did this a presence emerged which had the properties of transformation of consciousness, healing, love and enlightened wisdom.
8. After the experience wondering if I had deluded myself on some inner mind trip I invited several people who wanted to experience the presence of God/Allah to establish if this phenomena was real or not. Yes, it was very real and tangible as everyone in the room had experiences. One person started shaking all over so I guided her to lie down and upon letting go of her fear she went into a blissful ecstatic state of love. Another person went and sat in the corner of the room and upon leaving said she had been very ill and when the presence was released she was wrapped in a blanket of healing which acted like a miracle as she was then completely healed. Another person started asking seeking questions which I immediately had a knowingness arise within my mind but knew the truth was working through my life experience which was different from hers so she might not understand my sharing. What happened was quite amazing. 'The Presence' held her mind still so it could not attach to another question or move away from the enlightened Truth that was about to emerge. It then used her life experience to bring a knowingness to answer her question. She shared her knowingness saying I see it like this..... Which was the perfect enlightened answer to her seeking question. This shows that any intellectual knowledge is not required to gain enlightened wisdom, as the light source in its full vibration uses the life experience of the individual to bring answers to seeking questions. This is only available when the mind is still and single minded. In the case of this person they had no choice as the personal moving mind was held still when meeting the Presence of God/Allah. This Presence comes from our pure True-God/Allah-Self.
